

FLOW OF VIEWS AND LAYOUTS

MOBILE APP

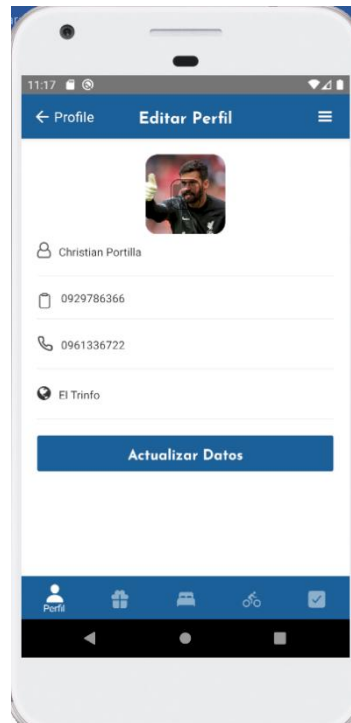

At first, the user will have the log in screen, we have the sign-up screen too.

After creating an account, you can log in and after that will be displayed the profile screen, activites screen, promotions screen, room screen and my reservation screen

In the profile screen, we have the possibility to edit the profile, and upload some photo

And finally, we have the Room screen, in that screen we can select the room, see the details of the room, select the amount of person that will reserve, see the summary of the reserve and reserve the room.
